ABOUT

With a knack for understanding the vision of others and providing creative solutions, I've collaborated over the last ten years with clients ranging from leading curriculum publishers to local churches and charter schools.

Additionally, I've been in the homeschool realm nearly all my life, homeschooled from 2nd grade to graduation and now homeschooling my own children for the last 7 years. I've written and edited homeschool curriculum, reviewed curriculum, and blogged about homeschool-specific topics. From this experience, I understand a variety of homeschool styles and needs, allowing me to cater my writing to fit the intended audience. Finding creative ways to engage out-of-the-box learners, including those with ADHD/dyslexia, is what I love most.

RATES & DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES

As a contracted writer, my aim is to produce quality content to your specifications and vision, fleshing out your ideas and putting them into words. The completed product will be your sole property and will include my name as contributor.

INDEPENDENTLY CONTRACTED COPY EDITOR

"You write to communicate to the hearts and minds of others what's burning inside of you, and we edit to let the fire show through the smoke." Arthur Plotnik

As a copy editor my focus is providing a final product that is clear, accurate, and concise. In addition to proofreading, services will include fine-tuning sentence and paragraph structure as well as perfecting word choice, allowing your intended message to be heard in your own unique style and voice.
